NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Monday, April 23, 2007, at the hour of 7:30 p.m. in the City Council Chambers at 2415 University Avenue, East Palo Alto, the City of East Palo Alto Planning Commission will conduct a public hearing on the following item:

Public Hearing: East Palo Alto Bay Access Master Plan and Negative Declaration (ND 07-02)

Location: City of East Palo Alto

Owner/Applicant: East Palo Alto Redevelopment Agency

Proposal: The applicant, the City of East Palo Alto Redevelopment Agency, is requesting that the Planning Commission recommend adoption of the East Palo Alto Bay Access Master Plan (BAMP) and a CEQA finding of no significant impact in Negative Declaration (ND 07-02). The BAMP creates a comprehensive vision of how East Palo Alto will access the San Francisco Bay to benefit existing and future residents and employers. The vision consists of a series of proposed pocket parks connected by pedestrian trails in the Ravenswood Business District; a pedestrian crossing of Highway 101; and a trail and pocket parks along the San Francisquito Creek corridor adjacent to the Gardens neighborhood and the Woodland neighborhood. The BAMP will lead to a proposed General Plan Amendment of the Open Space Element, the Circulation Element and the Land Use Element.

General Plan Land Use Designation: NA

Zoning/APN: NA
